

The Simone de Beauvoir Institute and the School of Community and Public Affairs invite you to hear:

Tuesday, March 19 at noon

NOUSHIG ELOYAN

“Personal Development and Political Career”

Noushig Eloyan is the first women from the cultural community to be nominated as President of the Executive Committee for the City of Montreal. She is responsible for the general administration of the City of Montreal, as well as the Northern sector of the city. Noushig was first elected as counsellor for the L'Acadie district in November, 1994.

Born in Syria, Noushig Eloyan arrived in Canada in 1977 and obtained a degree in Civil Engineering from Concordia University. In addition to her professional activities, Noushig has been involved in many social and community affairs. She remains particularly active in the affairs of the Montreal Armenian Community.

Place: The Lounge
Simone de Beauvoir Institute
Concordia University
2170 Bishop

Information: 848-2373